

Disney Magic at London International Cruise Terminal, Port of Tilbury

London International Cruise Terminal welcomes magnificent Disney Magic

The London International Cruise Terminal, located at The Port of Tilbury, warmly welcomes the arrival of the Disney Magic cruise ship this week as passengers begin their “Disney Magic at Sea” UK staycation sailings.

The magnificent vessel arrived into London’s nearest deep-water terminal on 14 September and will call again at selected dates until 1 October.

Featuring enchanted entertainment, the Disney Magic cruise ship will sail 2- and 3-night voyages from London Tilbury. The brand-new, limited time sailings provide guests the opportunity to experience the magic of Disney Cruise Line close to home.

Commenting on the arrival of Disney Magic, Steve Lyons, Head of Cruise for Capital Cruising said: “It is very exciting to the welcome Disney Magic to the London International Cruise Terminal. Our cruise terminal has been given the Disney’ magic treatment and passengers will enjoy their experience from the moment they arrive at our terminal. We look forward to welcoming the vessel back for a number of calls over the next month.”

Disney Cruise Line is implementing multiple layers of health and safety measures considering guidance from the U.K. government, health authorities and medical experts. This includes requiring guests 18 years of age and older to be fully vaccinated, COVID-19 testing, health screenings, face coverings, reduced guest capacity, physical distancing and enhanced cleaning, among other measures. More details regarding these measures will be available prior to booking.