

Dover Harbour

Dover

Dover is the premier cruise hub for cruise lines in the South East of England, one of the busiest ports in Britain and Northern Europe welcoming around 250,000 discerning cruise passengers a year.

With state of the art facilities, award winning customer service and excellent transport links including the High Speed train to London, two main motorways and Gatwick, Stansted and Heathrow airports within close proximity.

Top Five Facts About Dover

1. James Bond author Ian Fleming had a holiday home in Kent and found inspiration locally. The famous 007 tag came from the number of the London to Dover coach.
2. The White Cliffs of Dover were mentioned by Julius Caesar in his account of a 55 B.C. Roman invasion and by William Shakespeare in 'King Lear.'
3. Known as the 'key to England', the great fortress of Dover Castle has played a crucial role in the defence of the realm for over nine centuries, a span equalled only by the Tower of London and Windsor Castle.
4. Dover is the closest point in the UK to mainland Europe.
5. Excellent transport links to both the UK's capital and Europe.

Experience Dover

Canterbury Cathedral

Canterbury's World Heritage site includes one of England's most important historical buildings: spectacular Canterbury Cathedral, home to the Archbishop of Canterbury and centre of Christian pilgrimage.

Active & Outdoors

Kent overflows with country parks, special landscapes, and nature reserves. At the county's core is a classic rural landscape of undulating chalk downs. Green fields, ancient woods and swathes of big-sky marshland add extra appeal. This irresistible walking and cycling territory is traced by a tempting network of long-distance routes and day trails - there are 4200 miles of public rights of way alone.
