

Sunderland

The city by the sea in the heart of North East England

Welcome to our city by the sea! Sunderland is a confident, vibrant, welcoming city situated on the coast, at the mouth of the River Wear.

Once the biggest shipbuilding town in the world, Sunderland is a proud city that continues to evolve into a vibrant and exciting place to live and visit.

Only minutes from the open North Sea, Port of Sunderland offers two lock-free river berths just a stroll away from the busy, culture-rich city centre where you will find unique visitor attractions such as the National Glass Centre, Sunderland Museum & Winter Gardens and St Peters Church (AD674), one of the UK's earliest stone-built Anglo-Saxon churches and the home of Saint Bede. Those that like to stroll a little further, will be rewarded with the stunning sandy beaches and landscaped promenades of Roker and Seaburn, and the opportunity to visit one of many delightful cafés or indulge in some of the best fish & chips!

Sunderland offers cruise visitors a range of truly memorable experiences not easily found elsewhere. Why not try a guided tour of the 'secret tunnel' beneath the historic Roker pier and lighthouse, an intimate brass-band performance in the historic Holy Trinity, Sunderland's first parish church or feel the heat of the furnace during one of the six daily glass making demonstrations at the National Glass Centre which is built on the 7th century site of the very first stained-glass production in Great Britain.

At the heart of the wider North East England region, Sunderland provides the perfect port of call with many of the area's finest attractions within easy reach. Castles, Cathedrals, UNESCO world heritage sites, stunning landscapes, shopping sprees and world-class museums are all just a short journey away.

Sunderland has a truly diverse and engaging mix of things to see and do indoors and out, it is also beautifully positioned to help you make the most of this stunning region of England.

See it, do it, Sunderland!
